Circular

Dt. 13.10.2022

Dear Staff and Students,

- As per the orders of Government of Telangana, Higher Education Department vide G.O. No 1234/MC/2022 Dt. 12.10.2022 the Aadhaar Enabled Biometric Attendance will resume shortly.
- The Aadhaar Enabled Biometric Attendance System was implemented by TSCHE during October 2019 and was subsequently stopped due to Covid-19. The same will now be resumed.
- Students have to give their Biometric attendance twice a day; in the morning before 9 AM and in the evening after 4 PM without fail.
- Late coming, early leaving, half-a-day or permissions to leave early will not be counted for attendance by the biometric devices. Hence, to avoid shortage of attendance, you are strictly required to follow the timings.
- Students having shortage of Attendance as per the Biometric devices will be detained and their scholarship applications will be rejected by the ePass website automatically. Further, they are not allowed for University Examinations.
- Faculty incharges are required to explain the above to the students and guide them accordingly.
- The date of commencement of Biometric Attendance will be informed once received from the authorities.
